

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Rural Health West conferences

Rural Health West would like to inform rural and remote doctors of an important change to conference entitlements.

Due to increasing travel costs, it has been necessary for the organisation to examine cost-reduction strategies. Unfortunately, Rural Health West is no longer able to reimburse accommodation expenses and/or taxi fares.

Rural Health West will continue to provide the following entitlements to registrants:

- Air travel for doctor and partner (and two children in the case of doctor couples or sole parents).
- Fuel costs for transport to conference (when using private vehicle).
- Meals as specified in the conference program.

Rural Health West will endeavour to ensure that all events comply with the requirements of the Training for Rural and Remote Procedural GPs Program Guidelines, which provides a $2000 grant to doctors who meet the eligibility criteria.

Further information about this program is available on the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing website at:
